Notices.

TO MY FELLOW CITIZENS OF JEFFERSON WARD: I beg to announce my candidacy for the Council of the City of Richmond. For eighteen years I have been employed by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway at their shops; and am thus fully identified with the workingmen of the city and their interests. Before Fairmont was annexed to Richmond I was a member of the Council of the town and chairman of the Finance Committee, and I believe the principles I have followed in my public affairs will make me a more useful representative to you, and I solicit your vote and influence. Respectfully yours, W. F. DELANEY.
